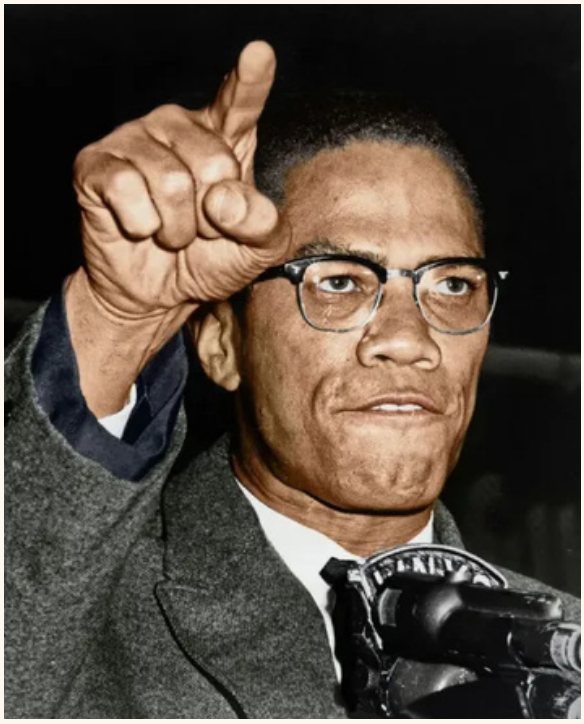
MALCOLM X



HELLO !

Malcolm X was born in 1925 as Malcolm Littleand he died the February 21,1965. His father was killed while Malcolm was still very young, possibly by white supremacistHis mother was institutionalized for mental health issuess.

His ideas

promoted peaceful protests and integration , Malcolm X emphasized self-defense, black nationalism, and the need for African Americans to take charge of their own destiny.V

His transformation and the involvement

While in prison for robbery from 1946 to 1952, heunderwent a conversion that eventually led him to join the Nation of Islam,an African American movement that combined elements of Islam with Black nationalism.
His decision to join the Nation also was influenced by discussions with his brother Reginald

His influence

Malcolm X was a leading figure in the Civil Rights Movement, and one of his most significant contributions was his emphasis on Black nationalism.
He believed that African Americans should take control of their lives and destiny and should not depend on American society for their well-being.

His quotes

“Peace and freedom cannot be separated, because no one can be at peace until they are free.”

“Education is a passport to the future, because tomorrow belongs to those who prepare for it today.”